Favors Annexation of Canada.

At Montreal, Lee Combat publishes an editorial in favor of the annexation of Canada to the United States. The paper points out that independence is impossible for Canada, and that annexation is the only alternative.

Energy all gone? Headache? Stomach out of order? Simply a case of torpid liver. Burdock Blood Bitters will make a new man or woman of you. 16-41

The Greenbrier, W. Va., Presbytery has passed the following resolution: "It is the solemn and final conviction of this presbytery that some of the brethren are departing from the time honored custom of the fathers in wearing hobnailed coats, and the presbytery would hereby warn the brethren against conformity to the custom of the fathers." 16-41

Hundreds of lives saved every year by having Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house just when it is needed. Cures croup, heals burns, cuts, wounds of every sort. 16-41

Sit Down and Think.

Somewhere in Caleb Powers' book will be found this sentence: "In me, the Republican party is on trial in Kentucky. Whenever I am tried, the Republican party is put on trial."

Sit down and calmly think over this sentence and try to comprehend its full meaning. It is true, but from your standpoint can you tell why it is true?—Somerset Journal.

Both Powers and the Republican party have been on trial, and each have argued their case and lost. No time to "sit down and think" now, better kneel down and pray.

Dream Came True.

Mrs. J. W. Hanna had a dream that impressed her to such an extent that she sought the pages of a dream book to interpret its meaning. The book revealed the meaning of the subject she dreamed about, and foretold that Mrs. Hanna would inherit a legacy from a deceased relative.

Monday she received a letter from Massachusetts, announcing the death of her uncle, Chas. Hubbard, and saying that she and others, heirs of her deceased mother, Mrs. Eliza P. Tabb, were entitled to Mr. Hubbard's estate. We have not learned the value of that legacy, but only hope it may be quite a handsome one.—Dover Messenger.

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS ACT.

Overtures Suggested to Methodists and Presbyterians Looking to Union.

The feature of the session of the Pan-American conference of Episcopal Bishops at Washington, D. C., was the adoption of a resolution "recommending a more kindly attitude toward the other Protestant bodies, with a view to possible union with them."

The resolution suggests that the governing bodies of the church lay before the Presbyterian General Assembly and the Methodist General Conference the contents of a paper read by the Coadjutor Bishop of Montreal on the points of agreement and disagreement between Protestant churches.

The resolution asks these Protestant communions seriously to consider the subject of church unity, with a view to "arriving at intercommunion and possible union of them and us, through the composition of some of the differences and the recognition that others do not constitute sufficient reasons for creating or continuing a rupture."

HEADQUARTERS!

Special attention is called to our FANCY WORK DEPARTMENT, where we have all the new ideas.

Madam Knott still has charge of the Dressmaking Department, and Mr. Vleck remains at the head of the Ladies' Tailoring Department. They need no introduction to the ladies of Montgomery County.

JAMES A. TODD, 10 N. Upper St., - Lexington, Ky.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

Ups and Downs of a College Man's Married Life Turned Out Beautifully.

"Tom," said Jack, as they lighted their cigars after the class reunion dinner, "tell me something about yourself. What have you been doing all these years since we left college?"

"Well, Jack, I've had my ups and downs. I was just about to start in business in New York when my physician ordered me to go West for my health."

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

"Oh! Too bad! I'm sorry to hear that, old man."

Well, it wasn't so bad, either. I started a ranch in Arizona and made a good deal of money.

"I'm glad to hear that, Tom. That was fine."

"Well, I don't know about that; it wasn't so good, either, for after I'd been running the ranch a while a murrain came along and killed off most of my stock."

"Too bad, too bad!"

wife's uncle died and left her a lot of money. We built a nice home of our own and moved in."

"That was great luck, old man, now wasn't it?"

"Well, it wasn't so good as it sounds; it didn't last. We hadn't been in the house six months before it took fire one night and was burned to the ground."

"Wasn't that hard luck! Too bad, too bad!"

"Well, I don't know; it wasn't so bad, either."

"How so?"

"My wife was burned up with the house."

Beckham's Statement.

Governor Beckham made a statement in which he said:

"Another time has Kentucky Democracy scored a great victory, and I am especially pleased at the great majority, which argues for greater victories in the future. The Republicans should realize now that their fight is a losing one and that they can not win by blackmail and newspaper libel. They will be compelled to see that they will have to fight without any stains on their garments, and that a campaign of abuse and calumny will always prove a losing fight. The Democratic government is endorsed by the people, and has placed Kentucky from among the doubtful States to a Democratic State, and will be a potent factor in the election of the next President, who will probably be a Democrat."

Police Officers Don't Believe Capt. Ewen's Tale of Alleged Attempt to Assassinate Him.

The following is what two officers of the force have to say of the recent alleged attempt to assassinate Capt. Ewen, in Lexington. After working on this case of the alleged attempt to assassinate Capt. B. J. Ewen, for three days, we find no evidence that leads us to believe that there is any truth in the alleged attempt to assassinate him, and it is our honest opinion that the whole thing is a 'fake. Furthermore, we are convinced from all the evidence we have secured, and heard, that Capt. Ewen did all the shooting himself.

Who said Belknap and Business? Is business not good? What says Mr. Belknap.

The Intoxicated Cows.

Rarely has anything more painful been seen than the exhibition of certain cows in a German village. By a lamentable mistake somebody put some alcohol into their fodder, and when the authorities came to milk them they were found reeling about the field in platoons, wearing on their now animated faces the merry expression of those who do not go home till morning, till daylight does appear. The episode recalls the story of the priest who told an Irishman that he ought to imitate the cows in that those respectable animals were never seen in a state of intoxication. "Ah," said Pat, "but have the basties ever come across a shtrame of whisky?"

THIRD WARD

It has been charged that voters were prevented from voting. This charge needs to be investigated and if found true, then the parties to it should have a legal hearing.

JUDICIAL OFFICIALS

In Allie W. Young, as Judge of the Circuit Court and Alex Conner, Commonwealth's Attorney, the people have reason to believe that the laws will be regarded, that justice will prevail, that dockets will be kept clear and that these gentlemen will be as acceptable as any of their predecessors. Mr. Young is a man strong in mind and body, well versed in law, an analytical training, capable of arriving at conclusions as reasoned from law and evidence, and with courage to carry them out.

TO WORK.

Election is over, enthusiasm will wane after to-day and it will be time for men to turn their attention to business with all their might and power. Mt. Sterling would greatly improve if we would give our energies in this direction as we have for party cause. We approve of determined, honorable efforts to succeed in politics and just so in business. A Bank and manufacturing company succeed by reason of all men working together and just so it is a city grows enhancing property values. Lets go to work for Mt. Sterling for our own personal business interest.

A LITTLE THING.

President Roosevelt, through his Secretary, Mr. Loeb, in an aping of foreign courts, by having the messengers about the White House uniformed, and the report that the ushers and doorknockers will appear in the same distinctive dress, is a source of no little comment. Of course the people are to pay for the dress and whatever addition expense may be called for. A little thing is this, but it is sufficient to show something of the extravagance of the administration and the aping nonsense of European forms and customs.

EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION.

We publish the following because we would have the people know we are human and are glad to learn when the ADVOCATE and its co-workers throughout the State, after continuous arguments supporting Democratic doctrines, are recognized as one of the motor powers that aided in bringing out the Democratic vote of the State, thereby resulting in so great a victory.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov 4, '03
Editor Mt. Sterling Advocate,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.

My Dear Sir:
On behalf of our Committee and every Democrat in the State, whom we represent, I thank you for the splendid service you rendered us during the campaign just closed. I do not think any Campaign Committee ever had as universal, continuous and effective aid from the press as did our committee. We appreciate it, the candidates appreciate it and the Democracy of the State commend it.

Again thanking you, I am, very cordially yours,
S. W. HAGER, Chairman.

FRAUDS.

Republicans are buying themselves by reporting frauds perpetrated by Democrats. They could see nothing but Democratic unfairness and it matters not how flagrant the Republican fraud and attempt to intimidate, they were blind, stone blind; they saw nothing. Negroes, 25 to 35 in number, coming about the polls, all sorts and ages, stacking all kinds of guns nearby is not a chance affair. We are advised such a state of affairs existed at one of the voting precincts in Montgomery county and it is palpable as a general rabbit hunt. This looks like a Taylor scheme on a small scale, and it would not be a bad idea for the sake of peace and protection that the grand jury look into such happenings. To say the least of it, to rabbit hunt around voting precincts is not advisable. As to the conduct of Democrats, the same law applies to them and they should observe the directions on the cards of instruction and be a correct example to their weaker political opponents.

The Payton Sisters.

The Paducah (Ky.) Sun, of October 6, has the following notice: "The three famous Payton Sisters and their big Company opened their week's engagement at the Kentucky last night to an appreciative audience and in spite of the large crowds on the streets and at the Carnival, the audience was very large and went away more than satisfied. The Payton Sisters made a big hit in their work and their gowns were commented on very favorably. The specialties were the best ever seen with a repertoire company in Paducah, and in fact the Payton Sisters deserve good patronage as they have a good show indeed."

They play here three nights, commencing Monday, the 16th, at popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents, with ladies free to the opening performance. Change of program at every performance.

Monday. This company has the reputation of being the best on the road, playing at popular prices, and theatre goers of Mt. Sterling will no doubt fill the house at each performance. The opening bill will be Lin B. Parkers great play "Utah," a rural comedy drama in four acts, telling of life in Utah during the Mormon regime in that State. The play and company are guaranteed first class in every respect.

DEATHS.

CHENAUET.—Mrs. David Chenauet, of Richmond, died of consumption.

ENOCH.—On Saturday, October 31, at Kansas City, Mo., W. D. Enoch, aged 73 years, died of dropsy. He was for several years a resident of this city—a clerk in the store of his son, J. C. Enoch. He was an excellent old gentleman. His many friends will regret to hear of his death. J. C. Enoch was with him when he died.

TABB.—On Wednesday, November 4, 1903, at their home in this city, Mrs. Mary J., aged 58 years, wife of J. L. Tabb, entered into rest. For sixteen years she has been almost helpless and has been a sufferer for twenty two years. The funeral service was conducted at the home by her pastor, Rev. H. D. Clark, on Friday morning and the burial was in Macphelah. The family have lived here for eight years. There are three children: Mrs. L. F. Payne, of Midway, H. G. and [N. H. Tabb, of this city. For many years she has been a member of the Christian Church. Patient in suffering, cheerful, gentle, trusting and hopeful she has been an inspiration to those who have known her intimately. Her suffering is over, but she lives in that heavenly home free from care and pain.

BOWEN.—Caswell Bowen, son of Wm. and George Ann Bowen, born December 6th, 1881, departed this life November 3rd, 1903, being 21 years, 10 months and 28 days of age. He leaves father, mother, two brothers and four sisters to mourn his loss. Cas was a kind charitable boy, often giving the last penny he would have to those in distress around him. His genial disposition won him a host of friends which was manifest by the way they flocked in to see him during his last hours. Death came so unexpected, almost without warning and snatched from a happy family circle one of their most beloved, prostrating the family with grief—leaving a vacancy in their hearts and home which can never be filled. But as a healing balm for that almost unconsoilable grief he confessed his Savior and told them he had left everything with his God. His last words were: "I die hard but I am not afraid to go." Funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. R. A. Irvin. His text being: "Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in Heaven." The body was interred in the Fawcner Cemetery.

Our $2 high-top shoes have no equal for wear.

C. E. Convention.

The Convention held at Carlisle, November 6, 7 and 8, of the fourth district was one of the best held since its organization. Most of the delegates arrived there Friday evening, there being about forty in all. They expected about seventy-five but the rest could not come on account of sickness and other obstacles. We were met at the depot by the reception committee, of whom there were quite a number, and as we descended the steps of the coach we were welcomed by a song. From the depot we went to the church where we listened to quite a fine program. After the "Welcome Address," by Rev. P. F. King, pastor of the Christian Church, every one realized that they were certainly welcome. Mr. Houston Rion, President of the fourth district, (and a competent president he is) told us of the C. E. Society, in a way which displayed his enthusiasm in this work and was much enjoyed by all who had the pleasure of hearing him. The remainder of the program for the evening was good but space forbids us giving it. After the services we went to the reception room of the church where we registered, partook of an elegant lunch, (such as the Carlisle people are capable of getting up) and then were assigned to our elegant homes where we were entertained (and entertained we were indeed.)

Saturday morning the program was resumed. Rev. F. M. Tindler, former pastor of that church, was on the program for two talks but was unable to get there, greatly to the disappointment of the people, and some others that were to address the convention failed to get there also. Their places were filled by others. We had the pleasure of listening to the talented Sunday School Worker, Mr. Robt. Hopkins, which was enjoyed by all. Brother King introduced Brother Hopkins as "The Condensed Cyclone," which the congregation agreed with him upon being an appropriate epithet. Most of our people are acquainted with Brother Hopkins and will remember him as quite an enthusiastic Sunday School worker.

Brother H. J. Dethrick, of Berea, of whom a number at this place are acquainted with, addressed the Convention on "The Mountain Problem," and after this I think the people had quite a different view of the mountain people and their ways. The address by Rev. A. H. Lindsay on "What is Prayer" gave us all an insight into the prayer. Remainder of program good.

Saturday afternoon was Junior Session, lead by Mrs. Alex. Conner, District Junior Superintendent, showed what the Juniors have done, could do and are doing, and displayed Mrs. Conner's ability as a superintendent. All the talks and readings were good.

One of the special features of the evening was the paper read by Mrs. J. W. Arnold, of Richmond, (see Miss Margaret Jones, of this city,) on "Christian Endeavor in our State Prisons. Is it Worthwhile, and Why?" This gave all an insight into the prison work, and showed what great good is being accomplished by the perseverance of these Christian women and men. We also had the pleasure of listening to the male quartette of Christian Church which is the finest we have heard.

Sunday morning we had regular Sunday School and Church services. Sunday afternoon services were held at county jail lead by Miss Etha VanArsdall, District Prison Secretary, of Paris. This meeting was well attended. Mrs. J. W. Arnold also responded at this meeting.

Regular C. E. Prayer meeting 6:00 to 7:00. Service begun at 7:20. The Committee reported on resolutions. The time and place of meeting was not decided upon—received two invitations. One to Paris and one to Owingsville. We were again favored with another quartette. All responded to roll call with Scripture verses and Carlisle Society with hymn and verse.

The Convention was quite a success and much enjoyed by all—all feeling that they were greatly benefited by it. The delegates from this Society wish to thank the people of Carlisle for their hospitality and if we are lucky enough to get the Convention to meet here again, "the latch-string hangs on the outside" for all. May these Conventions continue to do good is our earnest prayer.

"IF YOU'RE SUITED, IT SUITS ME."

[This poem was found among papers left at the County Clerk's office and brought to us. So much of a feast to the trained mind and pure heart it is that we have taken the liberty to publish it. It is from the literary pen of Rev. W. J. Bollen, former pastor of the Baptist Church here now of Baton Rouge, La., and is worthy a place in the collection of the rarest poems.—Ed.]

You have cherished high ambitions,
Built your castle windows fair,
Stretched your eager hand to grasp them
And you clutched the empty air.
You're trembling hand so human Hanging limp by falling knee,
Succumbing all so hard to say it,
"If you're suited, it suits me."

Or perchance the blind god, Cupid,
Sent an arrow to your heart
And a loving, heavenly vision
Came upon you with a start.
Then it left you broken, averted
To the shore by windy air,
As you mean, say to the sovereign,
"If you're suited, it suits me."

Maybe all you ask of heaven
Is a place to do your work,
You are brave, and you are skillful
Nor are you inclined to shirk,
But your place goes to another,
Seems as it had to be.

Understand "God, you are sovereign,
You're suited, it suits me."
Possibly your home is builded
With children and you are beam,
Eastern wind comes over the mountain
Fricion, discord near,
Foolish wife, ungrateful children,
Husband what is that to thee?

It's all right! God is sovereign,
If He's suited, it suits me.
Only wife upon the hearstone,
There is now the radiant dream
I made bright the wedding morning
Leaving such a golden shen!
Sneak has chased the brightness,
Of dreams that were to be.

But God, you are sovereign,
If He's suited, it suits me.
Woe, disappointed lover,
Come to hear for your death knell,
Though you've cherished hopes of heaven
Down you go to endless hell.
Malice has reached its climax,
As you plough the fiery sea.

Murmuring: God, you are sovereign,
If you're suited, it suits me.
When you years in soulful anguish
For a vision bright and clear,
And your heart-roads seem wander
And you realize your fate,
Find your comfort in submission,
Answer back as shadows flee.

All right, God, you are sovereign,
If you're suited, it suits me.
What is man here, but a puppet,
In the hand of a blind God of Appeals,
What's the difference when you learn it?
Whether early, whether late?
At last you must come to it,
Finally be made to see.

"All right, God, you are sovereign,
If it suits you, it suits me."
That's this I have been saying,
God forgive me for too late,
Never stern, religious Father,
Ever stern, religious Father,
And the life-plan thus far furnished
Is the best that ever could be.

For a living Christ in Jesus,
Lord of life for you and me,
Go then every base ambition,
Every earthly dream of bliss,
Lay it all in the before you,
Resting sweetly upon this—
For good all things do together—
Whether bringing joy or pain.

"Unto those who love the Father,"
Blessed be His holy name!

Twilight on a Farm.

The Jews come down and shadows gather in the dark and hazy;
Low in the west a band of black gives promise unto rain.
It is the twilight hour, and given over to calm and rest.

The boys come in and bathe their faces at the cooling well;
After and faint, then near and sweet, tinkle the last cow's bell;

It is the twilight hour, and stars are starting from the deep,
High heaven's heralds sent to watch that men
may sleep.

The father comes, a man of many years of toil
and care,
Who smiles to see the candle in the self same window there;

It is the twilight hour, and with the farm work
slightly done,
He feels a poor man's joy to think the food is won.

Then all sit down to eat the evening meal, and far away
A wisp rumbles out the neighbor's name who saves delay;
It is the twilight hour, and free from day's unending quest,
It brings to home a benediction and is blest.

A HARD STRUGGLE.

Many a Mt. Sterling Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching
With distressing urinary disorders
Daily existence is but a struggle.
No need to keep it up
Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you.

J. B. Lewis, of 426 Shelby St., Editor of the Frankfort Roundabout, says: "For a year or more I suffered a great deal from a dull aching pain across my back. At times the aching was constant for a day or two. If I sat still but for a short time it became almost unbearable and if I stooped or lifted anything I felt sharp twinges in the small of my back. The secretions from the kidneys were most irregular as well as highly colored and the odor very offensive. I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills through our papers, and got a box. After using them a few days I commenced to see an improvement. I kept on with the treatment and the pains on my back entirely left me and the kidney secretions became normal.
From the great amount of good I derived from the use of this medicine I have every reason to be convinced of its merit and have had the slightest hesitancy in giving it my hearty endorsement."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at the drug store of F. C. Duerson's and ask what his customers report.

OLD MEN MUST PAY MORE.

Younger Members Win Their Fight in the A. O. U. W.

After a two-day's stormy session the delegates to the convention of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in Pittsburgh yesterday ratified the new dispensation as arranged for by the National Convention of the Supreme Lodge held in St. Paul last June, the gist of the changes provided for being the increased rate required from members of the order over the age of fifty-five years.

The order has no reserve fund, and it was because of this that the Supreme body took such decisive action at the June convention.
The A. O. U. W. has a membership of 460,000 in the United States and of this number the Keystone State supplies about 16,500. A small increase is demanded from all except those members whose ages exceed fifty-five years, whose assessment will be doubled under the new regime. This caused a great deal of dissatisfaction among the older members, who contend that they were really the founders of the order and that they are now at that stage when the benefits are necessary. A two-thirds vote was necessary to change the by-laws, and the proposed regulation was bitterly opposed, but won out by a vote of 129 to 64.

HEALTH

"I don't think I could keep house without Theford's Black-draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Ky.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigori-ates the torpid liver and weakened kidneys

No Doctor

is necessary in the home where Theford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Theford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, had blood, headaches, diarrhea, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because it cleans the stomach, bowels and kidneys so nearly con-

THE GREAT MEDICINE.

MR. ALFRED BROWN.
A Prominent and Popular Citizen, Says:
"After the Use of Paine's Celery Compound,
I Am Now in the Best of Health."

The greatest of modern physicians, Prof.
Edward E. Phelps, M. D., L. D., after years of long practice and close scientific study, gave to suffering and diseased men and women his marvelous, life giving prescription, with the conviction and positive knowledge that it had peculiar virtues and ample power to cure.
Thousands of the strongest testimonials from the best known and most reliable men and women of our country fully sustain the claims made by Dr. Phelps regarding his incomparable Paine's Celery Compound.

One of our friends, recently furnished, comes recently from a gentleman widely known in the capital city of the Dominion of Canada. We refer to Mr. Alfred Brown, of O'Connor St., Ottawa, Ont. Mr. Brown's letter fully demonstrates the fact that the greatest sufferer may cut off his life burden of disease and become well, strong, and happy.
It proves, too, that the great medicine maintains more fully than ever before its unrivalled place in the estimation of people of wealth and social standing as well as with the masses.
Mr. Brown says:

"I acknowledge with thankfulness and pleasure the fact that I have been cured of a very painful illness of eight years' standing by use of Paine's Celery Compound. I had, during the years of my illness, tried almost all the advertised medicines without deriving any good results. I was also treated by several of the best doctors of this city, hoping to find that one of them, at least, would understand my case."

"I was getting worse, and was told I was incurable. I was indeed in a critical condition. I could not go from the house alone, as I was liable to sudden strokes. I tried hospital treatment, but no relief or good results came to me. I could not sleep; anything that I ate increased my agonies; I was extremely weak, restless, tired, and despondent; was obliged to walk about with my hands pressed firmly into my left side to ease my pains; my feet and hands were cold continually; had insomnia to vomit; had profuse cold sweats, quick breathing, and would be racked with pain for hours at a time."

"After the regular use of Paine's Celery Compound for a time, I am now in the best of health, have good appetite, and can use any kind of food. Thank God I am my old self once more, all thanks to Paine's Celery Compound."

A Reason For Democratic Victory.

FACTS and OBSERVATIONS

At Frenchburg Court.

From Rothwell the writer came to town in a buggy with G. B. Swango. The road is first-class. Water is scarce, Democrats are plentiful and enthusiastic. The largest Democratic majority was 459 for Whit, Beckham 394. The highest heretofore was 378 for Bryan. In one precinct the Republican clerk failed to certify 63 votes for Barrett, republican candidate for Senate opposed to Whitt this increasing Whitt's majority.

From the opening of our doors Saturday morning until the closing at midnight, our store was crowded with buyers and visitors who were elaborate in their praises for the neatness and completeness of this establishment. We are gracious for the many wishes of success showered on us by our patrons and know the public fully appreciates our efforts to give them a trading establishment for men and boys second to none in Kentucky. You know we have raised the standard of qualities and lowered the prices in every instance of every thing we have touched or handled. Whenever a cut in prices was necessary and the public benefitted, WALSH BROS. have been first to do it; and we shall go on and on, standing on the same foundation, in the same course, using the same methods, doing what we believe to be right, carrying the largest stock, the newest styles and best brands; refunding the money when purchase is not satisfactory, treating the child the same as the parent, as long as we remain in the clothing business, and sooner or later you will become one of the buying throng that outgrew our old quarters and forced us to a larger and brighter building right in the heart of the city.

We urge you to come and inspect our magnificent stock, and see how much better goods and how much farther your dollar will go here than elsewhere.

SUMMER COON.

BUGVILLE, KY., NOV. 6, 1903.

DEER EDITOR:

Its all over now, the next question is what did it. The good people of this grand old Commonwealth refused to indorse men who stand between assassinations and the laws of the land, that cowardly shot from the State house window in 1900 will be a stumbling block for the party that concocted it for many years to come yet, the fear the good people had of those assassins being turned loose put men to studying a little when they went to mark the ballots another thing. Some of Mr. Belknap's speakers drove votes to the other side. There is a heap in having the right kind of a bloning machien on the stump, you cant expect to get good clean music out of an old second-hand Bugle that sum other partys has throne away. I tell you right now I havent got as much sence as a stewed oyster, but by Jacks I will bet from sixty-five to thirty cents that I can take two gallons of pure old Kentucky sence-ibility and gobble up more votes in twenty-four hours then all the yelling machiens Belknap had on the Stump during his campaign. I only heard one gentleman like speech out of a dozen on the Belknap side and that was made by Mr. Yckers, I take him to be a nice gentleman, but I dont like his ticks worth a cent, never select second handed, throne away timber to make a good job out of it, wont work out right, the track was too dry for Belknap, he runs better on a mud Bottom, and all so up against a young scellone you must remember, look here Boss you ant spelling your words to sute my igation, dont mater, most any kind of a little old thing will explain the defeat of Belknap.

I wonder if Brother Cliff Tompson and Mr. Brooks wont have charge of the Salt river colorad brigade? I dont no the ar mighty slo, tha may get left. Look here! I dont notie no large amount of that Belknap money being in circulation a round town, I dont believe the coons got much of it after all. Maby you did not mix up with the role holders. Wel, ds them role holders, as you call them send back eny thing after the sugar it waid? Yes, evry thing gone down, thats what I lowed, I see now the ider is to have nothing left over, you said sumthin then! I will be dased if I o t t r and get to be a role holder the time if de Lord spars me, I tell you right now sum of the role holders in this last out fit took a little scattering themselves, to a man up a tree.

Wel tel mee dis, if I was runing for sum kind of a little ofice and I wet to put fifty or a hundred dollars in your hands to work on voters for mee, how would you begir business? Wel, I would put ten out of the hundred in thesawing pocket and leav the ninty in the send back pocket, woi I'd get ninty back, thats all right, yes set back ninty. Wel by gosh no wonder I see so meny dabling in election noway days. I tell you the third wad come out mighty short this time. What was the matter you reckon? Wel the coons lost to much time in having ther picture taken, it wont do to make a pietu gally out of a voting place, and a nother thing the pronest amount of ligat was not turned on acording to expectation.

NOT A WONDERFUL YEAR.

Popular Superstition Not Supported by Staty.

Is 1903 an "annus mirabilis"? A correspondent insists that it is, and offers in proof of his statement unseasonable weather every month, unprecedented drouth, the bottom falling out of the stock market, the Serbian assassinations, the death of the pope and "the gloomy record of crimes of violence, lynchings, murders, suicides, to say nothing of the 'fight to a finish' in which labor and capital are now engaged," says the Chicago Tribune. In conclusion, the correspondent wonders whether the events of the "wonderful year" could have occurred in any year the digits composing which did not form the fateful number "13."

If the matter depended upon "the fateful number 13" this correspondent might well set his mind at rest. The last year whose digits compose 13 was 1840, and it was about the dullest, most uneventful year of the century. There was nothing "wonderful" about it. Queen Victoria got married, penny postage was introduced in England, President Harrison was elected, the Mormons founded Nauvoo, the opium war with China was brought to an end and William I., of Holland, abdicated. Nearly every other year in the nineteenth century was more an "annus mirabilis" than 1840. And 1804, the preceding "13" year in the list, was not as wonderful as 1840.

But what is there specially "wonderful" about 1903 that should make this correspondent so pessimistic? Do we not have unseasonable weather every year? Supposing the bottom of the stock market has fallen out. Has there not been marked activity in all lines of legitimate business? Have the mishaps of speculation been reflected in trade industry? Has the assassination in Serbia created a ripple in the political or diplomatic world of Europe? The Roman potit is dead. He was old and he was mortal. Was not his death significant, however, in its revelation of the unity of Christian sentiment and sympathy? As to crime, it is no more rampant this year than it was last year, only certain unusual places have called special attention to it. In the long flight of time one year averages up very like another year. The "wonderful years" are extremely rare.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request. Be sure that this picture is the form of a seal on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion.
